- (l) the maintenance of register of registered graduates; and
- (m) any other matters which are to be or may be prescribed or regulated by Statutes.

(2) The draft of the Statutes shall be proposed by the Syndicate to the Chancellor for his assent who may approve it with or without any modification or refer it back to the Syndicate for reconsideration or reject it; provided that-

- (a) the Statutes affecting the constitution or powers of any Authority shall not be proposed or approved until such Authority has been given an opportunity of expressing its opinion in writing on the proposal; and
- (b) the Statutes made under clauses (a) and (b) of sub-section (1) shall not be effective until they have been approved by the Chancellor.

29. Regulations.---(1) Subject to the provisions of this Act and the Statutes, Regulations may be made in respect of all or any of the following matters, namely:

- (a) the courses of studies for degrees, diplomas and certificates of the University;
- (b) the manner and method of teaching conducted in the University;
- (c) the admission of students to the University and conditions under which they are admitted or allowed to take courses and examinations of the University and become eligible for the award of degrees, diplomas and certificates;
- (d) the fees and other charges to be paid by students for admission to the courses of studies and the examinations of the University;
- (e) the conduct of examinations;
- (f) the conduct and discipline of students of the University;
- (g) the conditions of residence of the students of the University or colleges including the levying of fees for residence in halls of residence and hostels and approval of hostels and lodgings for students;
- (h) conditions under which a person should carry on independent research to entitle him to a degree;
- (i) the institution of fellowships, scholarships, medals and prizes;
- (j) the institution of stipends and free and half free studentships;
- (k) the academic costumes;
- (l) the use of the library;
- (m) the formation of Teaching Departments and Boards of Studies; and

- (n) any other matters which under this Act or the Statutes are to be or may be prescribed by Regulations.

(2) The Academic Council shall prepare and submit the Regulations to the Syndicate, which may approve them with or without modifications or refer them back to the Academic Council for reconsideration.

(3) No Regulation shall be valid unless it has been approved by the Syndicate.

30. Amendment and repeal of the Statutes and Regulations.---The procedure for adding to, amending or repealing of the Statutes and the Regulations shall be the same as that prescribed respectively for framing or making of Statutes and Regulations.

31. Rules.---The Authorities and other bodies of the University may make Rules, consistent with this Act, the Statutes and Regulations, to regulate the conduct of their business:

Provided that the Syndicate may direct the amendment or annulment of any such Rules made by any authority or body other than the Syndicate:

Provided further that if any such Authority is dissatisfied with such direction given by the Syndicate, it may appeal to the Chancellor whose decision shall be final.

32. Affiliation of educational institutions.---(1) An educational institution seeking affiliation to the University shall satisfy that-

- (a) the educational institution is under the management of Government or a regularly constituted governing body;
- (b) the financial resources of the educational institution are sufficient to ensure its continued maintenance and efficient working;
- (c) the strength and qualifications and the terms and conditions of service of the teaching and other staff of the educational institution are satisfactory for the purpose of teaching the prescribed courses;
- (d) the educational institution has framed proper rules governing the conduct and discipline of its employees;
- (e) the building of the educational institution is suitable and commodious for its requirements;
- (f) the educational institution has or can make a provision in the prescribed manner for the residence of students not residing with their parents or guardians, and their supervision and physical and general welfare;

- (g) the educational institution has a provision for a library and adequate library services;
- (h) the educational institution has properly equipped laboratories, museums and other places of practical work required for courses of studies taught therein; and
- (i) the educational institution has or can make provisions for residence of its Heads and other members of the teaching staff.

(2) The application shall further contain an undertaking by educational institution that after it is affiliated, any changes in management or teaching staff shall forthwith be reported to the University and that the teaching staff shall possess such qualifications as are, or may be, prescribed.

(3) The Syndicate shall after considering the recommendations of the Affiliation Committee, dispose of the application for affiliation in accordance with such procedure as may be prescribed and may grant or refuse affiliation; provided that affiliation shall not be refused, unless the educational institution has been given an opportunity of making a representation against the proposed decision.

33. Extension of affiliation.---When an affiliated college desires to add to the courses of studies in respect of which it is granted affiliation, the procedure prescribed for affiliation of colleges shall, as far as possible, be followed.

34. Inspection and reports.---(1) Every affiliated educational institution shall furnish such reports, returns and other information as the University may require to enable it to judge the efficiency of the educational institution.

(2) The University may call upon any affiliated educational institution to take, within a specified period, such action in respect of any matter mentioned in sub-section (1) as the University may deem fit.

35. Disaffiliation.---(1) If an educational institution affiliated to the University has failed to fulfill any requirement of this Act or has failed to observe any of the conditions of affiliation or its affairs are conducted in a manner prejudicial to the interest of education, the Syndicate may, in the prescribed manner, and after considering any representation that the educational institution may wish to make, modify or withdraw all or any of the privileges conferred on the educational institution by the affiliation.

(2) Where any educational institution has been refused affiliation or all or any of the privileges conferred on any educational institution by affiliation have been modified or withdrawn under sub-section (1), it may, within the prescribed period, apply for review to the Syndicate against such refusal and the application shall be disposed of in such manner as may be prescribed.

36. University Fund.---There shall be a Fund of the University to be called the University Fund to which shall be credited all money received by it from fees, donations, trusts, bequests, endowments, contributions, grants and other sources.

37. Recovery of University dues.---All dues of the University shall be recoverable as arrears of land revenue.

38. Audit and accounts.---(1) The accounts of the University shall be maintained in such form and in such manner as may be prescribed.

(2) No expenditure shall be made from the University Fund unless-

- (a) the expenditure is included in the approved budget of the University; and
- (b) a bill for its payment has been audited in conformity with the Regulations, the Rules and the Statutes by the Internal Auditor appointed by the Syndicate.

(3) The accounts of the University shall be audited in the prescribed manner once a year by an Auditor appointed by Government in this behalf.

(4) The annual statement of accounts of the University signed by the Director Finance and the Auditors shall be submitted to Government within six months of the closing of the financial year.

(5) The observations of Government Auditor, together with such annotations as the Director Finance may make, shall be presented to the Syndicate.

39. Retirement from service.---Any Officer, Teacher or other employee of the University shall retire from service:

- (a) on such date, after he has completed twenty-five years of service, as the competent authority may, in the public interest, direct; or
- (b) where no direction is given under clause (a), on the completion of the sixtieth year of his age.

Explanation.---In this section, "competent authority" means the appointing authority.

40. Commencement of term of office of Authorities.---When a member of a newly constituted Authority is elected, appointed or nominated, his term of office, as fixed under this Act, shall commence from such date as may be prescribed.

41. Filling of casual vacancies in Authorities.---(1) Any casual vacancy among the elected, appointed or nominated members or any Authority shall be filled as soon as may be possible by the person or the body who elected, appointed or nominated the member whose place has become vacant and the person elected, appointed or nominated to the vacancy shall be a member of such Authority for the residue to the term for which the person whose place he fills would have been a member.

(2) Wherever there occurs a vacancy in the constitution of an Authority, as constituted by this Act, because of the abolition of a specified office under Government or because an organization, institution or other body outside the University has been dissolved or has ceased to function or because of some other reasons, it shall be filled in such a manner as the Chancellor may direct.

42. Disputes about membership of Authorities.---(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, a person nominated or elected to an Authority, shall cease to be member of such Authority as soon as he ceases to hold the position by virtue of which he was elected or nominated.

(2) If a question arises whether any person is entitled to be member of any Authority, the matter shall be referred to a committee consisting of the Vice Chancellor, the Chairman of Higher Education Commission or his nominee not below the rank of an Additional Secretary and a Dean who is a member of the Syndicate and the decision of the said committee shall be final.

43. Proceedings of Authorities not invalidated by vacancies.---No act, proceedings, resolution or decision of any Authority shall be invalid by reason only of the existence of any vacancy in, or any defect in the constitution of the Authority.

44. Tripartite mobility.---(1) Any Officer, Teacher or employee of the University, on the recommendations of the Syndicate, under the advice of the Vice Chancellor, may be directed to serve in any position in the University, under Government or educational research institution in the public interest; provided that the terms and conditions offered to him shall not be less favourable than those admissible to him in the University and full benefit of his previous service shall be allowed to him.

(2) Government may, in consultation with the Syndicate, place the services of an employee of Government or any other university or an educational or research institution at the disposal of the University in the public interest; provided that the terms and conditions offered to him shall not be less favourable than those enjoyed by him immediately before his services are placed at the disposal of the University and full benefit of his previous service shall be allowed to him.

45. First statutes.---Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Act, the Statutes, set out in the Schedule appended to this Act shall be deemed to be the Statutes framed under section 28 of this Act and shall continue to remain in force until amended or repealed.

46. Removal of difficulties.---If any difficulty arises as to the first constitution or reconstitution of any Authority after the commencement of this Act or otherwise in giving effect to the provisions of this Act, the Chancellor may, on recommendations of the Vice-Chancellor, give appropriate directions to remove such difficulty.

47. Repeal.--- University of Science and Technology Bannu Ordinance, 2005 (N.W.F.P. Ordinance No. III of 2005) is hereby repealed.
